A DESIRE TO VOTE

... in this heated election year should beat strongly in the breast of every man and woman.

Voting anytime is important. But this year, I believe, it is more important than at any time in the history of our country.

It is inevitable that our world, our lives, our actions change. And to survive we must adopt to changes. But I do not believe the general American public wants the radical changes advocated by the vocal few crammed down their throats.

So we must vote. But to be able to vote, we must register. And if we plan on voting in the November 7 General Election, we must register by midnight Friday, October 6. (That's tomorrow if you are reading this Thursday; it's today if you are reading it on Friday; and it's too late if you are reading it after that.)

MRS. DEWEY C. BROWN

... of Dallas mailed us a clipping in the Dallas Times Herald on our neighboring city to the east, Castroville. Mrs. Brown, the former Roberta Hudspeth who says she "spent the first 18½ years in Hondo, was right when she thought I would be interested in the delightful story written by Godfrey Anderson for the Associated Press. We always love to see Medina County receive favorable stories.

We thank Mrs. Brown for thinking of the Anvil Herald when she saw the story, and also for being a faithful subscriber.

OUR DIALOGUE ON CREDIT

... last week has brought many favorable responses. One merchant said he would like to have had enough copies to send one in each statement; one business ordered 10 copies; and several others expressed appreciation that the subject was covered. (No, I haven't heard from any of the credit riders, not even by check.)

Which brings us to a subject covered by an advertisement in this week's Anvil Herald. Credit Bureau Service Center, owned and operated by George and Evelyn Pletz in Devine, is offering a special identification card for people to utilize in cashing checks, opening new accounts, etc. It's not a bad idea; read the ad and see if you like it.

THE JOE FILLINGERS

... of D'Hanis enjoyed travel this summer through the western states, Canada and back through the mid-west.

And guess what? They saw the Hondo sign, but this time as a commercial. In Mission, South Dakota they saw the sign which read: "Welcome, This is God's Country, Don't Drive Through It Like Hell" signed "Abourezk's Store".

The big difference between the two cards, here and there, say the Fillingers is "up there you have to pay for the card".

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

... directors gave the green light to a membership drive beginning Monday in the form of a letter to present and past members as well as potential members.

The importance of belonging to the Hondo Chamber of Commerce cannot be minimized. It is the only organization devoting full time to the building of Hondo. What it accomplishes depends entirely on how much businessmen and individual residents are willing to finance.

The Chamber of Commerce is YOU. No matter what you do, run a business, teach school, work for the federal, state, county or city government, you should be a member of the Hondo Chamber of Commerce.

A city the size of Hondo cannot remain "as is". It must either grow or dry up on the vine. Its direction in the next few years rests squarely on the shoulders of its residents, its businesses, its industries. If they are interested enough and pay their fair share, our city will grow.

If they don't it could die a slow death.

So when you get that letter within the next two weeks, don't throw it away, don't lay it aside. Express your faith in our city--join the Hondo Chamber of Commerce.

4-H'ers observe 'week'

Medina County 4-H'ers, approximately 400 strong in 11 different community clubs, will be among the 100,000 4-H members throughout the state of Texas promoting 4-H during National 4-H Week October 1-7. All Medina County 4-H'ers are under the supervision of Medina County Extension Agents Gaye Bipient and Glenn Bragg.

4-H is a venturesome organization of active boys and girls constantly taking the necessary steps to move forward and to grow and develop. 4-H is reaching out into new areas, involving youth with new interests and backgrounds. Thus it's appropriate that this year's theme of National 4-H Week is "A New Day--A New Way". Boys and girls are now encouraged to do their own things, set their own pace, venture into new areas of interest.

Anyone interested between the ages of 9 and 19 may join 4-H. There is no entry fee. Each member usually is responsible for financing his or her own project. Some of the most popular projects in our county include Beef, Swine, Sheep, Clothing, Foods & Nutrition, Dog Care and Training, Horsemanship, and Recreation and many more.

4-H is a way of meeting people and becoming informed.

Two specialists to be speakers

Covering a wide range of subjects close to the pocket-book of cattle producers, two Texas A&M Extension specialists will provide the program for the Wednesday, October 11, Beef Cattle Short Course in Hondo.

Speaking at the 8 p.m. session in the Audio Visual room at Hondo High School will be Dr. Richard Bjerregaard, Area Range Specialist for District 13 and 12; and Kenneth E. Graeber, Area Extension Economist--Management.

Subjects to be covered by the two specialists include: deferred grazing systems; low frequency, high intensity grazing; brush and weed control; economics of selling calves at 200 pounds, 350-450 pounds and 600 to 700 pounds; costs and returns from intensive irrigated grazing systems; and value of fertility testing bulls and palpating cows.

The Beef Cattle Short Course is designed to provide information to producers that will make their operation more efficient and therefore increase net income.

Dr. Bjerregaard joined the Extension Service on July 1 of this year. He is a native of Sanpete County, Utah and received his B. S. degree from Brigham Young University.

He completed his Ph. D in ecology at Utah State University and was an assistant professor in the Biological Sciences Department at California State Polytechnic University before joining the Extension Service.

Revenue to benefit county, city

If and when it is passed by Congress Revenue Sharing will definitely provide an economic boon to Medina County and the cities within the county, but no one knows the exact impact it will have.

Official figures on the breakdown have been provided by the Anvil Herald by Rep. John Poerner, who obtained them from the Austin office of Sen. Lloyd Bentsen.

"These figures are official, having been sent on print-outs just this week," Rep. Poerner said.

They reveal that Medina County will receive $217,500 for use by the Commissioners Court as it deems necessary. Hondo will receive $16,500, while Devine is slated to get $16,000.

Other cities in the county with more than 2,500 population will receive a grand total of $8,128. Officials feel this means incorporated cities so that means the last amount would be divided among Castroville, LaCoste and Natalia.

"There will be a summary issued soon," Poerner said, "which will give a more complete picture."

A letter from Sen. John Tower states: "The bill will be retroactive to January 1, 1972." Which means, whatever amount is set aside for Medina County governments they will receive the full amount.

County Judge Jerome Decker said Tuesday that the Commissioners Court has not discussed ways to utilize the money "since everything is unofficial at this time."

He continued: "Once we officially know we are going to receive a certain amount, we will make a decision on how to use it."

Mayor George Brucks of Hondo said practically the same thing. "We know nothing officially, therefore it's difficult to discuss what to use it for."

Registration in Medina County set an all-time high this year when 8,511 residents registered to vote in the primaries and 8,639 registered for the run-off election.

Arrests uncover lots of loot taken in area burglaries

Four San Antonio young people have been arrested and charged with the burglaries of seven residence in Medina County last August.

Bond for the four has been set at $5,000 per person per burglary. The group is also wanted for the burglary of residences in Real, Bandera, Wilson and Guadalupe Counties.

One of the four, Hart Jerome Tollett, Jr., confessed to the thefts in a series of sworn statements made to Sheriff's officials.

In doing so, he implicated three companions who have also been jailed. They are Ricky Joe Lynch and Scottie Sue Lynch and Sherry Poole, also of San Antonio.

Two of the burglaries occurred on August 20. On that day, the Edward Heinrich home near Devine was broken into, and Leon Tschirhart home in Castroville was also burglarized.

Two days later, on August 22, Toby Tomblin's residence in Devine was hit.

On August 25, the Norman G. Bodet, Jr. residence at Pipe Creek was burglarized.

The following day, August 26, Victor Bourgeois of Mico also had his residence burglarized.

The Rick Sneed trailer house in Mico was also broken into and a large amount of property was stolen at that home.

The first arrest of Tollett was made by tracing the serial number of one of the stolen rifles to him. The rifle turned up at a San Antonio pawnshop. Under questioning, Tollett named the other three.

Tollett also admitted having stolen rifles out of pickup trucks about seven times during

Newspapers pause for special week

AN EDITORIAL

LETTERS AND NEWSPAPERS

Most people like to "get things off their chest," and under freedom they can do it.

That's what free speech and free press are all about.

One of the best ways to get things off your chest is to write a letter to the editor.

This time-honored way of giving one's views and ideas is an important part of our free society and free press.

All letters written to editors cannot be printed.

Oftentimes space is lacking. Sometimes the words and ideas may be spiteful, abusive or even libelous. But most readers — and writers — have the opportunity to say what they think.

It is important that people read newspapers with understanding, think for themselves, and take responsible action when they believe it necessary, if only to get it off their chest with a letter to the editor.

In this way, free speech and a free press will continue to guarantee a free and open society.

AN EDITORIAL

ADVERTISING AND NEWSPAPERS

Publishing a newspaper has become an extremely costly business.

Costs of labor, administration, services, supplies and distribution have escalated like everything else.

If readers of this newspaper had to bear the entire cost of its publication, they would pay many times the present per copy rate.

They actually pay less than a third of the actual cost.

Advertising pays the difference.

Advertising is a helpful and wanted service for newspaper readers.

People long ago recognized newspapers were an ideal means of bringing buyers and sellers together.

No newspaper has existed for long without advertising, although some have tried.

Time after time polls have shown that, given a preference, people prefer newspapers with advertising.

It's an essential and informative part of this and every other newspaper.

Explains vote on revenue sharing

TOUGH DECISION

My decision to vote against Revenue Sharing was a difficult one; it was one of the hardest choices I have faced since I came to the U. S. Senate.

There are 254 county governments and 883 municipalities in Texas, and all of them are badly in need of additional funds. And the financial problems that plague these city and county governments, and our state government, are of great concern to me.

But, in the end I decided to oppose Revenue Sharing for two reasons. The primary reason was that I know of no Federal revenue to share, only Federal deficits; and the second reason was that in the long run, Revenue Sharing will not improve local government.

Someone recently said that "Revenue Sharing will not improve local government. It was a concept discussed in 1964 as a means of distributing a Federal budget surplus. Yet, today the surplus has evaporated. During Fiscal 1971 and 1972 we experienced the largest deficits of any two years since World War II. And the Joint Economic Committee of the Congress, of which I am a member, estimates the deficit will soar higher than that during Fiscal 1973, to $30 billion and beyond.

The galloping budget deficit is a matter of concern to everyone in the Congress, and many solutions have been proposed. Some people advocate a decrease in the level of spending, while others say a better solution lies in a complete reform of our tax system.

Still another alternative solution, one that few people like to talk about exists. An increase in Federal taxes is a very real prospect. The Congress enacted tax cuts in 1969 and '71 that have reduced revenue by $15 billion a year while, at the same time, Federal expenditures have risen by $40 billion a year.

AVOID TAX INCREASE

I want to avoid a Federal tax increase if it is at all possible, but simple arithmetic tells us we won't be able to curb the budget deficit while maintaining our current tax level if we don't take firm action to decrease spending in combination with tax reform.

And we cannot hold the line on spending by approving new programs such as Revenue Sharing, which will require the expenditure of more than $6 billion a year for the next five years.

In addition to the fact that there is no Federal revenue to share, I have serious doubts that Revenue Sharing will improve local government.

I fear that, as the scope of Revenue Sharing broadens, our state and local governments will become no more than extensions of our national government.

I fear that local government will become dependent on Federal Revenue Sharing funds for providing routine local services, which could destroy the independence of local government to an extent.

But I have become convinced that increased Federal participation in local government is not the answer. I have become convinced that bigger Federal deficits, more inflation and higher Federal taxes aren't the answer.

I have become convinced that Revenue Sharing isn't the answer.

4-H Week of special importance to area life

"Learning by doing" is the central creed of 4-H work, and over the past years hundreds of Medina County youngsters have done and are still doing just that.

This brings 4-H Week--October 1-8--closer home. It makes it more personal. That girl or boy in your home, next door or down the street could well be one of the more than 5,000,000 American youngsters involved in projects and activities that enable them to learn skills and attitudes that will help them in their adult life.

Maybe they are learning sewing. Or it could be cooking and baking. Or horse care and dog care.

Or it could be community service projects through which 4-H'ers are helping make this a better place in which to live.

It could be a hundred different things.

But the involvement of these young people affect local homes even more strongly. For behind those 4-H workers are many adults who give freely of time, experience, talent and effort.

4-H is a dedicated effort to better America; a planned program to improve life and living in our country. We firmly believe this program to be one of the finest in America for training and teaching our young people to prepare for an adult life that follows the values of cooperation, involvement and self-reliance.

We urge everyone to join us in saluting 400 Medina County 4-H members and their 75 leaders during their week.

Let's show them we are proud of young people who work toward building our country instead of tearing it down. Let's show them we care about their caring.

"Wul, the radiators hot! Maw take this can and run back to the windmill and git some water, I'll stay here and watch the pickup so nobody will steal it!"

Poerner's Corner

The Texas Legislature is now in its second week of hearings on insurance matters included within the Governor's call. Unfortunately, the call covers only a very small segment of the insurance industry—sort of like placing a bandaid over a third degree burn.

I plan to listen and learn very attentively for the duration of these hearings in the hope that we might improve on insurance matters in Texas. At this writing it seems doubtful that a revision of any consequence will pass without great opposition. I have introduced H.C.R. No. 7 that would provide the next session of the Legislature with a complete study of all aspects of insurance. The resolution creates a twelve member committee to be named as follows:

By the Speaker of the House: Two members of the House of Representatives, Two citizens; By the Lieutenant Governor: Two members of the Senate, Two citizens; By the Governor: Two citizens; By the Chairman of the House: Two members of the House of Representatives, Two citizens; By the Lieutenant Governor: Two members of the Senate, Two citizens; By the Governor: Two citizens; By the Chairman of the Senate: Two members of the Senate, Two citizens.

And we cannot hold the line on spending by approving new programs such as Revenue Sharing, which will require the expenditure of more than $6 billion a year for the next five years.

And I fear that, even though the spending practices of the huge Federal bureaucracy are sometimes wasteful, the fact that local officials will be spending money without having to answer to an electorate for imposing taxes to raise the money will lead to equal waste at the local level; and this, in turn, will cause the Congress to enact restrictions that will further reduce local independence.

As I said earlier, the decision to vote against Revenue Sharing was difficult for me. Demands upon our state and local governments have increased dramatically in recent years; their expenditures have risen faster than those of the Federal government during the past 10 years.

But I have become convinced that increased Federal participation in local government is not the answer. I have become convinced that bigger Federal deficits, more inflation and higher Federal taxes aren't the answer.

I have become convinced that Revenue Sharing isn't the answer.

To The Editor

Dear Sir:

I read about the Taylor-Chapman Weather in last week's paper, and about snails predicting rain. There is another kind of creature that could be called a forecaster—only this type doesn't happen to be the lovable kind. He's the unlovable kind—the scorpion.

One evening after twilight three came up on my porch to tell me it's going to rain, to such an extent that it cost them their lives. The next morning another one was on the upper step with the same message. He died too! Two days after that the rain came.

This is not the first time I have had them to predict rain—not the same ones, of course, but their colleagues.

Bobcats take Cowboys by 27-18

and the kick again was good. Score 20-10.

The Cowboys battled back, and had a drive in progress when Thomas of Comfort, playing on defense, grabbed a Bobby Joe Rothe pass and took it about 75 yards for another touchdown. The kick made it 27-10, two minutes into the final quarter.

At this point, several setbacks badly hurt D'Hanis' chances for a win. A pass was intercepted in the end zone by Bobcat Randy Surdin, and a later drive was halted at the Comfort 14-yard line, when a clip was called.

The kickoff was fumbled, and Bobby Joe Rothe recovered. However, the next play saw Bobby Joe's pass intercepted, and the Bobcats renewed their drive.

With 3:43 left in the first quarter, Steven Bohnert took the ball 22 yards for a touchdown. The extra point kick by Kirby Holekamp was no good, and the score stood Comfort 27, D'Hanis 3.

The Cowboys took over the ball following the kickoff, and mounted a steady, pass-then-run attack that saw Spencer Burrell take a pass for 19 yards down to the Bobcat 1-yard line. From there, following blocks by David Gallegos and David Nester, quarterback Ricky Rothe crossed over into paydirt.

Score: 10-6 following the successful kick, with 1:16 left in the first quarter.

The second quarter passed with no further scoring. The Bobcats ran almost exclusively, passing but once in the half, incomplete. The Cowboys, on the other hand, had a balanced attack, but were stymied several times by the penalty route.

In the second half, with little over a minute gone, Comfort, faced with fourth down and long yardage, attempted their own field goal, but it went awry, and that threat was stymied.

Later in the quarter, Comfort battled steadily down to the Cowboy one-yard line, and Danny Thomas went over guard for the score. This time the kick was good, and Comfort led by three points again, 13-10.

Another plunge of a yard by Thomas added another score later in the quarter.

ing last hunting season. Most of these thefts occurred at the Herman Sons Steakhouse and at Sammy's Drive In in Castroville while the owners were inside eating.

The group's mode of operation suggests that the burglaries all occurred without prior knowledge of which house or vehicle was to be broken into. The suspects drove from San Antonio down country roads in Medina County, searching for vacant houses or locked gates.

On most occasions they walked up to the houses in late afternoon and knocked at the front and back doors. Satisfied no one was home, they then made their way inside.

One burglary was made of a ranch home by cutting through the locked chain of the gate, driving to the house, calmly loading their loot and driving away.

The stolen articles were sold in San Antonio at various locations, either for drugs or for money to buy drugs. An estimate of the cost of the drugs is revealed by Tollert's statement that an air conditioner stolen from one home netted about $45 worth of dope or about 1.5 grams.

The same amount of dope was obtained in trade for a stereo-radio from another home.

Most of the stolen property has been recovered, and more is expected to be located in the near future.

Asked what can be done to prevent burglary of personal property, the sheriff suggested strongly that each home-owner copy down the serial number of every rifle, appliance, sporting good, and any other item which might be valuable to a thief. Keep two copies of the list, in separate locations.

Without the numbers, it is much more difficult for items to be traced to their true owners.

Another preventive measure greatly stressed is for people to "get involved".

"If you see anything strange going on at your neighbor's, please give us a call so we can at least check it out," pleaded Chief Deputy Floyd Williams.

"Don't attempt to stop the burglars yourself, but remember their description and write down their license numbers if you can."

Homes in the country are no longer "safe" from burglars. As long as a home is accessible by car, it can be burglarized, regardless of how close or far it is to town.

The Principal's and Superintendent's Offices at D'Hanis High School were broken into Friday night. Missing from the Principal's office was $150 in cash.

Entry was made first into the Principal's office, where the vandals tried to force open a vault. They succeeded in removing the knob from the vault, but failed to open the door.

They then ransacked a storage closet in the office, where the money was kept.

Entering the Superintendent's office, they apparently did not steal anything.

Following this letter, potential members will receive a letter also inviting them to join.

After these letters are mailed and the returns are counted, followup activities will be planned.

Hondo Scouts to participate in big international show

SAN ANTONIO--Hondo Scouts participating in Scout Country Fair Saturday, Oct. 21, will become a part of an international flavor with some 200 Scouts from Mexico also taking part in the big show.

At least 200 Scouts from four cities in Mexico will participate, it was announced at Alamo Area Council headquarters here. Cities to be represented are Mexico City, Monterrey, Monclova and Veracruz.

Most of the Mexico Scouts will participate in Camp-O-Rena, the big overnight camp that is a colorful part of the show.

For the south of the border Scouts, it means a second straight year of participation. Three cities from Mexico were represented in the show in 1971.

Herbert J. Wildins, Alamo Area Council Scout executive, said this participation was an outstanding means of building understanding between boys who will be the leaders of their respective nations in the future.

"Understanding among people is especially fostered when contacts are made in the young, formative years," Wildins pointed out.

Hondo Scouts participating in the show are in Troop 219, sponsored by St. John's Catholic Church.

Dog-week celebrated

The Hondo 4-H Dog Care and Training Club participated in San Antonio in observance of National Dog Week activities sponsored by San Antonio Dog Training Club Saturday, Sept. 30, at McClellan Shopping Center.

Cooperatives
good business

Cooperatives are people in business to serve people. They're good business—but with a difference.

They are people—all kinds of people—who work together to do what one cannot do alone. People together can, and do, meet just about any sort of need imaginable . . . marketing, getting farm supplies, electric and telephone service, credit, insurance, housing, health care, and on . . . with efficiency, economy, and warm understanding.

All today's user-owned cooperatives—whether marketing, purchasing, or service—fit into the contemporary scene like hand in glove.

People in cooperatives are now people, actively participating in programs for community development, improving the environment, and bettering the quality of life for everyone, everywhere.

Cooperatives serve—by placing priority on people, making them a vigorous part of the American business system.

That's the big PLUS.

"When you've got a good thing going, keep it up," is the motto of the Hondo Chamber of Commerce when it comes to the Hondo sign postcards.

That's why the directors Monday authorized the purchase of 25,000 additional cards for distribution all over the world.

Directors also thought the idea of the Chamber displaying a sign across the highway to say "Best Wishes" to the Uvalde Coyotes was a good one. But they decided to wait just a little while to see if the Coyotes make it into the playoffs.

The idea of hosting a meeting of representatives of chambers of commerce along Highway 90 to discuss the development of that artery proved acceptable to directors and they will so notify Rep. John Poerner who made the suggestion. Since the idea is tentative, time and place will be told later.

St. Joseph's celebrates anniversary

St. Joseph's Church cele-brated its 75th Anniversary Saturday, September 30, with Devine clergy of several faiths, former St. Joseph's pastors, and Bishops Francis Furey and Patrick Flores in the Gospel and Archbishop Furey delivered the Homily.

In his address, Furey com-mended the people of Devine for their faith in the past years, and encouraged them to continue in the future.

The choir was directed by Mrs. Arthur Ehlinger. Di-rectors in addition to Mrs. Ehlinger were Mrs. Selma Blatz and Susan Wright.

A 6 p.m. covered dish supper was served for guests and parishioners, followed at 8 p.m. by a dance outside the building.

A Memory Room is set up at the Church, containing articles, pictures, and differ-ent items that were used at the Church in the past. It will remain open for a few weeks so that the people of Devine may look at it during their free time.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Maples of C&M Electric Co. in Castroville have been serving the electrical needs of Castroville and Medina Valley people for over seven years.

Beginning in 1965 in an old metal building, the busi-ness soon expanded beyond the space available, and the Maples moved their store to its present location on High-way 90 East in October of 1970.

C&M today has five em-ployees to serve their cus-tomers efficiently and in a friendly manner. Currently working are Vickie McAnel-ly and Robert Denney, both of Devine, Bill Brister, Joe Zinsmeyer and John Young. C&M handles all phases of electrical work, remodel-ing, repair, and air condi-tioning service. In addition, they sell Motorola televisions, York air conditioning systems, washers, dryers, ranges and small appliances.

Owls roll over Royals 26-0

The Hondo Owls rolled to victory number three Friday night as they stopped winless St. Gerard's cold by a 26-0 score.

The Owls mounted their first scoring drive early in the first quarter as Keith Ligon moved the ball on successive runs of three, five, and twenty yards. He, Juan Campos and Brian Finger combined to bring the ball to the 35-yard line of St. Gerard's. From there, Finger passed to Kebo, and he rammed across the goal line. Gene McAnelly's kick was good, and with 3:08 in the first quarter, Hondo led 7-0.

Air-minded St. Gerard's found the passing lanes narrow indeed, and the Owl pass defense of Finger, Campos and Doug Helvey et al zipped up the football field tighter than a miser's purse.

The first quarter ended on a sour note, however. Taking the Segovia kick, McAnelly brought the ball to the St. Gerard's 48.

But a play later, the ball bobbled free and a St. Gerard's man recovered.

The second quarter saw the second Hondo touchdown. After setting up the ball on the Gerard's 24-yard line with a 24-yard pass to McAnelly, Finger gave the ball to Ligon, who made the final 24 yards. Score with 3:12 left in the half, 13-0, as McAnelly's kick went wide.

The rest of the half passed in uneventful fashion and Hondo took its lead into the clubhouse.

The second half turned into a marathon of St. Gerard's incompletions and Owl penalties, but there were several bright spots left in the evening.

The half saw a steady,

KEBO DOES HIS THING

... and it worked many times Friday night. Here, with Gary Zinsmeyer (71) about to help him out, Ligon (20) rounds left end for a good gain.

Keith Ligon should be regarded as a very real All State candidate, even at this early point in the season. Already in the four games Hondo has played, including one in which he was injured much of the game (Floresville), Kebo has gained over 700 yards of total offense. He has stacked up eight touchdowns, scoring in each of the four games played by Hondo so far this year. Best of all for the team, the swift Senior has done it without becoming a one-man football team, sharing the ball-carrying duties with other Owl players. And a large part of that 700 yards has come via pass receptions, which makes Kebo something rare—a talented runner with good hands. Ligon comes off a good year last season, and Dave Campbell awarded him the additional honor of a slot on his "Texas Football" pre-season All-State second team offense.

'B' team over Devine

The Hondo "B" Team rolled to a 20-0 win over the Devine Warhorse "B" Team Thursday night (Sept. 28) at Barry Field.

The game was the second of a double header which saw the Hondo Freshmen fight the Devine Frosh to a scoreless tie.

The Owl Freshmen drove inside the ten-yard line on three separate occasions but failed to score. One of the drives stalled at the one-yard line against the stubborn Devine defense.

The Devine Freshmen never mounted a serious threat.

In the "B" game, the Owls used runs of 11 yards by Robert Rodriguez and 22 yards by Raul Dominguez, and a Mike Groff to Tim Hardt pass for their scores.

Out of a total offense of 309 yards in the game, 114 were gained by Lonnie Rodriguez of the Owls. The Warhorses gained 154 yards.

Four weeks of the college football season are already past history ... and baseball season still isn't over! But in these past four weeks, some

Bowlers take 4 th in tourney

Four Hondo bowlers failed to bring home the bacon from a recent tournament but they got a few of the scraps.

The four, all air controllers at the Randolph AFB GCA site in Hondo, joined with a buddy from Randolph to enter the 13th Annual Federal Employees Bowling Tournament at Randolph.

Entered as the Hondo Hi Rollers, they posted a handicap total of 2974 to place fourth in the Class B bracket.

Team members included: Dave Knight, John Yezierski, Bill Edington and Pete Pike and Jeff Bowerman from Randolph.

extremely powerful football teams have literally blown their opposition right out of the stadium. Nebraska, Colorado, Oklahoma, Southern Cal, Tennessee, U.C.L.A., and Arizona State, in particular, have struck with awesome power.

Our forecasting average for the first three weeks of the season—through Saturday, September 23rd, is certainly not that awesome, but it's still passing. We've picked the results of some 534 games to date ... 403 have been right, 123 were wrong, and there have been eight ties for a .766 batting percentage. So ... back to the forecasting chopping block...

In the Pacific Eight Conference, the first contest that will have a direct bearing on the league champion and the Rose Bowl representative is set for Saturday. Southern California, ranked #2, meets last year's champion, 10th-rated Stanford. This neighborly little scrap is one of the college highlights of the day. The Trojans are expected to beat back the Indians by 19 points.

Penn State, the East's annual independent powerhouse, has not been overly impressive this fall. The once-beaten Nittany Lions, ranked 19th, tackle Big Tenner Illinois, a three-time loser. Penn State is favored by 17 points.

Michigan, co-power in the Big Ten, and ranked 3rd nationally, plays Navy. The Middies have improved considerably this year, but will be no match for the powerful Wolverines. Michigan will win by 29.

Ranked #6 in the nation, a strong Notre Dame team meets Michigan State in East Lansing. Teams of copy used to be written about this game, but the Spartans aren't quite that potent this fall. However, it's become a rivalry where ratings and past records don't mean very much. We'll pick the Irish by 20 points.

A couple of good matchups are scheduled in the Southeast Conference. Alabama, #4, meets Georgia, and Auburn, rated 12th this week, plays Mississippi.

The Crimson Tide and the Tigers will both have busy nights ... Alabama will win by 20, and Auburn may squeak through by four points.

Harmon Pro Forecast

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 8

MIAMI.....31 NEW YORK JETS...24

This should be the game of the day: Namath's pin-point passing ... the fantastic Dolphin defense. These two are favorites for AFC Eastern Division championship.

MINNESOTA.....23 ST. LOUIS.....10

The Vikings apparently have found the offense to go with the defense. Card Coach Bob Hollway is ex-defensive coach for Minnesota ... however, it won't help.

KANSAS CITY.....26 CLEVELAND.....23

The Browns' Bill Nelson and Mike Phipps might be preparing surprise party for lethargic Chiefs (remembering game against Saints 2 weeks ago). Chiefs should win, but be wary of the party!

N.Y. GIANTS.....21 NEW ORLEANS.....20

Norm Snead versus Archie Manning ... the old versus the new. The Giants have progressed faster this year than have the Saints ... New York in this one.

WASHINGTON.....30 PHILADELPHIA.....14

Only problem here would be a let-down on the part of the once-beaten Skins. However, Washington will win this one ... no second guesses.

DALLAS.....30 PITTSBURGH.....17

Just don't think that the Steeler offense will ever get in high gear against the Cowboy defense.

BALTIMORE.....27 SAN DIEGO.....24

A real hard one to pick ... both teams have been way up and way down ... the Colts should, but the Chargers could.

SAN FRANCISCO.....20 LOS ANGELES.....17

If a Prothrow-coached team has ever lost to John Brodie, we missed it. This may be the first time ... the 49ers in a close one.

MONDAY NITE

ATLANTA.....31 DETROIT.....27

Falcons will enjoy home field advantage, and against Lions it might help. Not sure Atlanta can register two upsets in succession, but we'll pick 'em by four.

GREEN BAY.....24 CHICAGO.....20

Coach Dan Devine has the Pack playing good football. If they can continue to play as they did against Dallas, Green Bay should trip the Bears.

OAKLAND.....20 HOUSTON.....13

If the Oilers give the Chiefs the same kind of reception they gave the Jets, this score could be reversed. Oakland meets a real challenge ... the state of Texas!

Cotulla Cowboys

heaf for 1972.

Like last week's opponents from St. Gerard's, the Cowboys lack size, but then they too are quick. And they also have the added quality of experience.

This year they appear much improved, returning seven offensive and eight defensive starters to their line-up. But still, they were picked in "Texas Football" at the bottom of the 28-AA pounds.

These three have the edge due to experience, but they are followed closely by Bill Dove, Rudy Garcia, and Martin Kruger.

Linemen will be no problem, with Carl Jones at Center, and Hector Garcia and Wally Cox at guards. Tackles include Senior Lupe Vela, and 190-lb. Alvaro Gonzales, a Junior.

Ruben Lopez, 165-lb, Junior, and Joe Compos, a 150-lb. Sophomore, provide depth at quarterback this season.

If everything fits together right, they may begin to think about avenging that 40-0 defeat Hondo laid on them last year.
